Summary

In the referendum on 23 June 2016, a majority of the UK electorate voted to leave the EU. On 26 January 2017 the European Union \(Notification of Withdrawal\) Bill 2016-17 was introduced in the House of Commons by the Rt Hon David Davis MP, Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union, and on 16 March it received Royal Assent. On 2 February Mr Davis published The United Kingdom's exit from and new partnership with the European Union White Paper. On 29 March 2017 Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union was triggered in a letter from the Prime Minister, Rt Hon Theresa May MP to European Council President Donald Tusk as part of the government's Plan for Britain.

UK withdrawal from the EU – usually described as 'Brexit' – has been the subject of a great deal of comment in books, journal articles, press reports and blogs.

This paper provides information on and/or links to a selection of analysis, comment and statistics on:

- Trade negotiations, tariffs and custom duties
- Domestic economic policy and public expenditure
- the EU budget, contributions, grants and loans
- Business and industry, state aid and SMEs,
- Employment, training, pay and the cost of living
- Regional economic development and transport
- Issues for Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

There is also a list of Library briefing papers and parliamentary committee reports.

This paper will be updated periodically.

About the Library

The House of Commons Library research service provides MPs and their staff with the impartial briefing and evidence base they need to do their work in scrutinising Government, proposing legislation, and supporting constituents.

As well as providing MPs with a confidential service we publish open briefing papers, which are available on the Parliament website.

Every effort is made to ensure that the information contained in these publicly available research briefings is correct at the time of publication. Readers should be aware however that briefings are not necessarily updated or otherwise amended to reflect subsequent changes.

If you have any comments on our briefings please email papers@parliament.uk. Authors are available to discuss the content of this briefing only with Members and their staff.

If you have any general questions about the work of the House of Commons you can email hcenquiries@parliament.uk.
