

RESEARCH BRIEFING

Number 02537, 8 January 2019

Members' changes of allegiance in the House of Commons since 1979

Compiled by Sarah Priddy

This list notes when a Member has changed allegiance from one political party to another or decided to sit as an independent MP. Instances of Members losing or resigning a party whip are also noted.

Is there a by-election if an MP changes party?

No, by-elections are not automatically triggered if an MP changes his or her party affiliation although a Member may choose to stand down and fight the ensuing by-election under a new party label or as an independent Member.

Role of the Whips' Office

Information on the role of the Government and Opposition whips in the management of parliamentary business can be found in the Commons Library briefing on The Whips' Office.

Feedback

Due to the difficulties in compiling a comprehensive list of all floor-crossings, whip withdrawals and whip resignations, this list cannot be guaranteed to be definitive.

We are always happy to hear of any additions or amendments to the list. Please email papers@parliament.uk with any comments. We also welcome suggestions for new lists.

About the Library

The House of Commons Library research service provides MPs and their staff with the impartial briefing and evidence base they need to do their work in scrutinising Government, proposing legislation, and supporting constituents.

As well as providing MPs with a confidential service we publish open briefing papers, which are available on the Parliament website.

Every effort is made to ensure that the information contained in these publically available research briefings is correct at the time of publication. Readers should be aware however that briefings are not necessarily updated or otherwise amended to reflect subsequent changes.

If you have any comments on our briefings please email papers@parliament.uk. Authors are available to discuss the content of this briefing only with Members and their staff.

If you have any general questions about the work of the House of Commons you can email hcinfo@parliament.uk.
