

Lords Membership: Lists of Current and Former Female Peers

Summary

As at 29 January 2018, there were 214 women in the House of Lords, out of a gross membership of 818 (these figures include those Members currently on leave of absence or disqualified for holding certain offices). The number of female Members were made up of:

- 210 life Peers appointed under the Life Peerages Act 1958.
- One Peer appointed under the Appellate Jurisdiction Act 1876 (Baroness Hale of Richmond).
- One excepted hereditary Peer under the House of Lords Act 1999 (the Countess of Mar).
- Two Bishops (following the enactment of the Lords Spiritual (Women) Act 2015¹).

Over time, including the one Member appointed under the Appellate Jurisdiction Act 1876, there have been 294 female life Peers; these are listed in the table in appendix 1.² In addition, there have been 25 female Members who have sat in the House of Lords by virtue of a hereditary peerage; these are listed in the table in appendix 2.³

Further information on women in the House of Lords, including historical background to their participation, can be found in the Library Briefing: Women in the House of Lords, 30 June 2015.
