

House of Lords: Backgrounds in Public Life

Summary

This House of Lords Library Briefing presents lists of current Members of the House, as at 5 April 2019, who have held roles across government, defence, law, policing, media and other areas of public life. The membership of the House includes individuals who have served:

- in cabinet, including as First Secretary of State, Deputy Prime Minister, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Home Secretary or Foreign Secretary;
- as Cabinet Secretary, Head of the Home Civil Service, Permanent Secretary to the Treasury, Head of the Diplomatic Service, Director-General of the Security Service (MI5) or as a UK Ambassador;
- as a council leader, including the current leaders of Wiltshire Council and South Holland District Council;
- as Chief of the Defence Staff or Secretary-General of NATO;
- as a Justice of the Supreme Court, including the current President;
- as Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police;
- as a university vice-chancellor;
- as Archbishop of Canterbury, including the current Archbishop, or Chief Rabbi;
- as Director-General of the BBC or Chief Executive of ITV;
- as an Olympic or Paralympic athlete;
- in the European Commission; or
- as the current Secretary-General of the Commonwealth.

Members of the House of Lords have a wide variety of professional backgrounds. This briefing does not list all positions held by Members in their professional lives and so should not be relied upon as a comprehensive source of information on the breadth of professional experience within the House.

This edition updates the earlier briefing House of Lords: Backgrounds in Public Life (5 April 2017). The lists in this document have been compiled using information in the public domain. The Library would welcome comment on any omissions or inaccuracies, and/or suggestions for lists to be included in future editions.

A full list of Lords Library briefings is available on the research briefings page on the internet. The Library publishes briefings for all major items of business debated in the House of Lords. The Library also publishes briefings on the House of Lords itself and other subjects that may be of interest to Members.

House of Lords Library briefings are compiled for the benefit of Members of the House of Lords and their personal staff, to provide impartial, authoritative, politically balanced briefing on subjects likely to be of interest to Members of the Lords. Authors are available to discuss the contents of the briefings with the Members and their staff but cannot advise members of the general public.

Any comments on Library briefings should be sent to the Head of Research Services, House of Lords Library, London SW1A 0PW or emailed to purvism@parliament.uk.
