Social and General Statistics Section

This Note provides Members' voting records on Division 147 and Division 148 of Session 2005-06 on 31 January 2006. The House divided on consideration of Lords Amendments to the Racial and Religious Hatred Bill [Bill 15 of 2005-06]. The Government's motion to disagree with the Lords' Amendments was defeated on both occasions.

Division 147 was on a Government motion to disagree with Lords Amendment 2 to leave out provisions relating to stirring up hatred against persons on racial grounds. The Government motion was defeated by 288 votes to 278. Division 148 was on a Government motion to disagree with Lords Amendment 4 that "abusive and insulting behaviour" should not be criminalised, merely "threatening" behaviour; and that persons should not be prosecuted for "recklessly" stirring up religious hatred - that is, without intent. The Government motion was defeated by 283 votes to 282. The only other change made to the Bill during its Commons stages was during the Report Stage on 11 July 2005 when the House agreed to a new clause which meant that it would not be possible to make a citizen's arrest in connection with offences relating to incitement to racial or religious hatred. The House agreed to the new clause without a Division.
