

Maiden Speeches 1945 - 1979

Parliamentary Information List

Standard Note: SN/PC/04587

Last updated: 21 January 2008

Author: Department of Information Services

The first time a newly elected Member speaks in the Chamber of the House of Commons is known as a maiden speech. By tradition, the Member is called ahead of other MPs who may have indicated their wish to speak in the same debate. A maiden speech is usually uncontroversial, fairly brief and includes a tribute to the Member's predecessor in the seat, irrespective of party, and favourable remarks about the constituency. It is also a tradition that a maiden speech is heard without interruption and for any speeches that may follow to praise the new MP's first contribution.

This index lists maiden speeches by all Members newly elected in the period from the 1945 general election to the end of the Parliament before the general election of 1979. It includes details of the Member's constituency and party and the date and reference of the speech.

The Parliamentary Information List series covers various topics relating to Parliament; they include Bills, Committees, Constitution, Debates, Divisions, The House of Commons, Parliament and procedure.

Also available:

Research papers – impartial briefings on major bills and other topics of public and parliamentary concern, available as printed documents and on the Intranet and Internet.

Standard notes – a selection of less formal briefings, often produced in response to frequently asked questions, are accessible via the Internet.

Guides to Parliament – The House of Commons Information Office answers enquiries on the work, history and membership of the House of Commons. It also produces a range of publications about the House which are available for free in hard copy on request

Education web site – a web site for children and schools with information and activities about Parliament.

Any comments or corrections to the lists would be gratefully received and should be sent to: Parliamentary Information Lists Editor, Parliament & Constitution Centre, House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA.
