Maiden Speeches in the House of Commons since 2015

Compiled by
Sarah Priddy

What is a maiden speech?

The first time a newly elected Member speaks in the Chamber of the House of Commons is known as a maiden speech. By tradition, the MP is called ahead of other MPs who may have indicated their wish to speak in the same debate. A maiden speech is usually uncontroversial, fairly brief and includes a tribute to the Member's predecessor in the seat, irrespective of party, and favourable remarks about the constituency. It is also a tradition that a maiden speech is heard without interruption and for any speeches that may follow to praise the new MP's first contribution.

Guidance for new Members: Maiden speeches is published by the Governance Office on the parliamentary Intranet. MPs may:

- wait to make their maiden speech before speaking at all in the Chamber
- take part in questions but seek to speak in debate only when ready to deliver a maiden speech
- take part fully in proceedings without making a traditional maiden speech.

Maiden speeches since 2015

This index provides Hansard references for maiden speeches by all MPs newly elected in the 2015, 2017 and 2019 Parliaments and includes details of each Member's constituency and party.

2019 Parliament

140 new MPs were returned at the 2019 General Election. These included one Sinn Féin MP, who has neither taken the oath nor made the affirmation and thus cannot make a maiden speech. Members who don't take the oath or make an affirmation are disqualified from taking part in proceedings. See the Commons Library briefing on the Parliamentary Oath for more information. 15 former MPs were re-elected and do not make an additional maiden speech.

Virtual Proceedings

In response to coronavirus, the House introduced procedures in April 2020 to allow MPs to participate remotely. Sara Britcliffe was the first Member to make a maiden speech remotely. Virtual contributions are noted in the spreadsheet with a 'V'.

2017 Parliament

87 new MPs were returned at the 2015 General Election. A further five Members were returned at by-elections during the Parliament one of which, a Sinn Féin MP, has not taken the oath or made the affirmation and so cannot take part in proceedings. Twelve former MPs were re-elected.

2015 Parliament

177 new MPs were returned at the 2015 General Election with a further ten returned at by-elections during the Parliament. An eleventh vacancy, Manchester Gorton, was contested at the 2017 General election

The one Sinn Féin MP elected at the 2015 General Election did not take the oath or make an affirmation and is therefore disqualified from taking part in proceedings. Five former MP were re-elected.

Election results

Analysis of the results for the 2015, 2017 and 2019 General Elections is available in the following Commons Library Briefing Papers together with the full results for download in CSV files:

About the Library

The House of Commons Library research service provides MPs and their staff with the impartial briefing and evidence base they need to do their work in scrutinising Government, proposing legislation, and supporting constituents.

As well as providing MPs with a confidential service we publish open briefing papers, which are available on the Parliament website.

Every effort is made to ensure that the information contained in these publically available research briefings is correct at the time of publication. Readers should be aware however that briefings are not necessarily updated or otherwise amended to reflect subsequent changes.

If you have any comments on our briefings please email papers@parliament.uk. Authors are available to discuss the content of this briefing only with Members and their staff.

If you have any general questions about the work of the House of Commons you can email hcinfo@parliament.uk.
